 October Fundraising Wine Order

1	Hunter Valley A full fresh palate of complex fruits and lightly cedary nose reveals the Hunter origins. Good length from moderate oaking and a crisp finish. White meat companion. We think it would be sensational with eye fillet of veal in a faint green peppercorn sauce and a side dish of pommes noisettes.	Chardonnay	2007	$12.50
2	Padthaway Crisp and acid lime flavours and a dry finish give this a classic Euro Riesling character. Ideal match for rich seafood dishes.	Riesling	2006	$13.50
3	Hunter Valley A bright red colour offers liquorice and blackberry bouquet. Medium bodied with plenty of Hunter berry flavours, lingering spices and a hint of vanilla. A genuine partner to prime beef and hearty roast vegetables.	Shiraz	2006	$12.50
4	Coldstream Hand picked cool climate Pinot with 10 months of French oak barrique treatment gives us a stunning wine of ripe cherry flavours and lingering finish. Great food wine, with lots of character to go with lightly spiced asian or saucy Italian dishes.	Pinot Noir	2006	$16.00
5	Margaret River A floral nose and rich plum and fruit flavours are the hallmarks of this wine. With complimentary oak tannins it is superbly balanced. A great choice when having roasted meats, and in particular, rack of lamb. Don't hold back the herb garnish on the meat, as this wine will hold its own.	Cabernet Sauvignon	2005	$14.50
6	Barossa Valley Vibrant red berry fruit aromas with generous sweet plummy fruit. Hints of licorice and mint with mild tannins and a smooth lingering finish. A great accompaniment for fine creamy and rind washed cheeses with ripe characters. Also suits creamy pasta dishes.	Merlot	2006	$13.00
7	South Australian A dry sparkling wine blend. Fresh fruit flavours dominate. A crisp finish follows. Big enough to have with that special meal. French provincial is an ideal match, but good old Aussie tucker is also well enhanced by this wine.	Sparkling Brut	2008	$10.50

All prices include GST - Orders close on 27th Oct 2008
