'BALANCE OF POWER' TRIO TO JUDGE PHOTOS AT RALPHS BAY SPRING FAIR

September 13th 2009

A 'balance of power' coalition of judges from the three major Tasmanian political parties will choose the winners of the photographic competition at the Ralphs Bay Spring Fair today.

Strong Save Ralphs Bay supporters Cassy O'Connor MHA and Ross Butler MHA will be joined by endorsed Liberal candidate David Compton to judge the "My Ralphs Bay" photographic competition soon after entries close at 12.00.

The Ralphs Bay Spring Fair will be held at the Lauderdale Hall from 11.00am – 3.00pm.

Attractions include information displays on the Ralphs Bay shorebirds and saltmarsh, the underwater world of the bay and diving opportunities.

There will be a sausage sizzle; "mug o' soup" - delicious home made soup in a Ralphs Bay keepsake mug; face painting, balloon art and hooping; raffle of a beautiful Ralphs Bay watercolour by Tina Terry; children's raffle of dolls house miniatures and "Ralphs Bay Ted"; SRB merchandise; cakes, plants, books etc.
